Ex.4 Read and translate the text.

We live in Moscow in Minskaya Street in a new block of flats. Our flat is large and comfortable. It is a four-room flat. We got it two years ago. We live on the fifth floor. There is a shop on the ground floor. There is a lift in our block of flats.

Let's have a look at our flat. Though there are four rooms in our flat we like our living-room best of all because in the evening we gather there to have tea, watch TV, talk and rest. The living-room is large. There are two windows and a door in it. The windows face the street. The door leads to my grandparents' bedroom. There is a table and some chairs in the middle of the room. There is a sofa near the window. The TV is in the corner. There are some arm-chairs and a piano in the living-room. My sister plays the piano. You can see four bookshelves on the wall. The ceiling is high.

In the morning we have breakfast in the kitchen. It is large and light. The table is near the window. The refrigerator is in the corner. It keeps all the food fresh. It doesn't use much electricity. The gas-stove is opposite the fridge. There is always running hot and cold water and central heating in our block of flats.

When we got our flat we invited all our friends for the house-warming. It was a joyful party.

Ex.5 Переведите на английский язык.

Новый многоэтажный дом, четырёхкомнатная квартира, на первом этаже, окна выходят, сохраняет пищу свежей, не потребляет много электричества, напротив холодильника, центральное отопление, новоселье, весёлая вечеринка.

Welcome to the White House!

In 1789, George Washington became the first President ¹ _____ the United States. Two years later, he chose this place to build the President's house. Unfortunately, Washington died before ² _____ house was ready, so the first person to live there was the second President, John Adams. He moved ³ _____ the house with his wife, Abigail, in 1800. Since then, every President has lived there.

Over the years, there have been many changes. The British set fire to the house in 1814 during a war between the two countries. Three years ⁴ _____, President Monroe organised the repairs. In 1901, President Roosevelt named the house the 'White House' and the next year, he started a programme to modernise it. This included building a new part of the house: the West Wing. ⁵ _____ 1909, William Taft created the Oval Office in the West Wing, and this has been the President's office since then.

The White House has 132 rooms, 35 bathrooms, eight staircases, three lifts, a swimming pool, a tennis court, a jogging track and a private cinema. It receives 30,000 visitors ⁶ _____ week. While it is the home of the US president and his (or her) family, the White House is also a museum of American history.
